2023 - A Few Comments from 'Ohana who attended the "The Road to Homeownership and Financial Sustainability" Workshop

All the knowledge that I have learned and now I can use to benefit me.

Staff was loving, caring and welcoming.

Comfortable classroom setting to share.

Excellent workshop in getting knowledge on what to expect in purchasing a home. The instructors were `ike.

I really liked that the teachers were very knowledgeable and very experienced.

Workshop was very informative.

I learned a lot about home ownership.

*I liked the pace of the workshop. It would have been overwhelming.
I learned a lot.*

The workshop was easy to follow, comfortable, understandable.

The resources provided were excellent and the staff was very loving.

Clear explanation of information.

I liked everything about the workshop.

I liked the exercise on power pay and learning that we have tools, and support to help us own a home.

I learned about the long process and preparation that goes into buying a home.

What was important to me was the loan information and how to improve my credit.

Learned a lot about DIY and permitting.

The workshop location was not easy to find.

Very friendly and healthy workshop.

The instructors encouraged us to ask questions and the environment was welcoming.

The information that was shared was very helpful and made me aware of changes that I need to make.

The workshop was outstanding. Seriously, thank you!~

I learned a lot that I didn't know about the home buying process.

Everything was informative and educational.

Likes the examples of how expenses should be controlled and able to ask questions. The expertise of the instructors.

The intimacy of the workshop where questions could be asked and answered without judgement.
